Hi, Anthony.

How is your life in Japan? In your last e-mail, you said you enjoyed your school life very much. That's really wonderful. Last year, you studied Japanese hard, so you are having a good time in Japan. I also began to study Japanese. It is difficult but interesting.

I have good news. I will be able to see you in Japan this summer. I'm so excited. My sister will go to Japan this August for her work. She will take me to Japan with her. She is going to work in Tokyo for a month. I know you don't live in Tokyo, but still I will visit you. Please take me to some nice places in your town. Also, if you have time in August, let's go to Kyoto together.

I'm waiting for your e-mail.

Bill

Tom : Really?

Aya: Yes, I practiced volleyball on Monday, Tuesday, and yesterday. I will also practice it tomorrow.

Tom: Will you have a game this Sunday?

Aya: No, I won't, but I'll have one next month.

Tom: I see. I'll come to your game.

Aya: Thank you.

Tom: Did you go to English conversation school on Wednesday evening?

Aya: Yes, I did. I enjoyed the lesson very much.

Tom: Are you free after school today?

Aya: No. I'll have a piano lesson this evening.

Tom: And tomorrow, you'll practice volleyball. You're really busy.

Aya: That's right. I don't have any free time. Also, I have to study math on Sunday.

3 次の英文を読んで、下の1・2の問いに答えなさい。

This summer, Yuji went shopping with his family and enjoyed walking around the big street. The street had a lot of shops and restaurants. When he went to one shop, a woman talked to him in English. She said, "Excuse me. Could you tell me the way to the station?" Yuji understood her English and knew where it was, but he didn't know what to say in English. He couldn't tell her the way and just said, "I'm sorry. I don't know." She said, "OK, thanks," and asked another man. Yuji really wanted to answer her, so ______. He thought, "I didn't help her because I couldn't speak English."

When Yuji went back to school in September, he talked to his English teacher, Ms. Koyama, about it. She said, "In English class, I think you learned some important words and phrases to give directions." Yuji said, "Yes, but I couldn't remember any of them at that time. Also I'm very nervous when I speak in English. I think just studying in English class is not enough. I have to practice English and use it more."

Yuji decided to practice English more. Now he uses a map of the city and practices giving directions in English. He often talks with his native English teacher. Yuji thinks speaking English every day is necessary. He wants to help people from other countries, so studying English is important to him.
