1 次の英文は、Yukiがself-driving cars（自動運転車）について書いたものです。文中の に入る最も適切なものを、下のア～エから一つ選び、その記号を書きなさい。

I read a news article about self-driving cars yesterday. These days, we often hear about them. Car companies around the world are now working hard to make cars that can drive by themselves. How will self-driving cars be helpful in our lives? First, we will not have many car accidents. Second, we will be able to spend our time more freely in our cars because we will not have to drive. Third, self-driving cars will not waste a lot of energy, and so they will be more friendly to the environment. However, . When an accident happens, who will be responsible? The driver? The car company? Also, bus drivers, taxi drivers, and truck drivers may lose their jobs if self-driving cars become common. Self-driving cars may help us in the future, but we need to think about their good points and bad points.

Makoto Sushi Restaurant ★★★★★
Review from Greg, the Sushi King ★★★★★☆ If you are looking for a nice sushi restaurant in East City, I recommend Makoto Sushi. The chefs learned how to make sushi in Japan and they know real Japanese sushi . It is the best sushi I have ever had. You will like all food on the menu, but I think you should try the Chef's Special. I think this restaurant is almost perfect, but the food prices are a little high.
Review from No Food, No Life ★★★★★☆ Yesterday, I went to Makoto Sushi for the first time and I loved it. The food all tasted great. I especially liked the tempura . The chefs made the sushi in front of us. It was so much fun to watch it! It's crowded during lunch time, so you should go there early if you don't want to wait.
Review from Ginger K ★★☆☆☆☆ Many people say they love this restaurant, but I don't think Makoto Sushi is the best in this city. I liked eating the sushi the chefs served, but it was too expensive. Also, there aren't many seats, so sometimes you have to wait. I hope my comment will help you.

One day, Haruki said to his grandfather, "I sometimes get nervous when I talk with David. I make many English mistakes. I'm afraid he doesn't understand my English well." His grandfather said, "Don't worry. If you keep practicing English, you will get better at it."

Later that day, Haruki and David talked online. Haruki said, "David, my school will have a school festival next month. I am a member of the dance team. We want to dance at the festival, but we have a problem." "What is it?" said David. Haruki said, "Our team needs a song for our performance. We have listened to many songs, but they weren't good." David answered that he was a member of a band. He said he would be glad to make a song for Haruki and his dance team. He also said, "We will play the song online when you dance at the festival." Haruki said, "That's great!"

One week later, David sent the song to Haruki by e-mail. Haruki listened to the song with his teammates. Everyone loved it and they started practicing their dance.

The night before the festival, Haruki's grandfather asked, "How do you feel about tomorrow?" Haruki told him that he was worried about it. His grandfather said, "You have practiced a lot. I'm sure you will have fun." Haruki decided to do his best.

The festival day came. Haruki prepared a projector and a computer, and got on the stage with his dance team. Haruki said to the audience, "Please look at the screen. This is David and his band. They will play music for us from America! Please enjoy our performance." The Japanese students and American students started the performance together. The audience thought it was amazing. After the performance, everyone clapped for a long time. Haruki was so happy.

The next day, Haruki talked with David. Haruki said, "Thank you for your help." David told him that he enjoyed making and playing the song. He also said he always enjoyed his conversations with Haruki. Haruki was surprised and said, "Really? I thought it was difficult for you to understand my English." David smiled and said, "You sometimes make small English mistakes, but I can always understand you. I think you are good at speaking English." Haruki felt relieved.

Haruki wrote a message to himself in a notebook. "One mistake is not the end. Mistakes happen when you try. Don't be afraid of making mistakes. Let's keep trying."
