

Table with 3 main columns for 1学期, 2学期, and 3学期. Each column contains a grid of dates (1-31) and activities. The table is organized into three main sections: 1学期 (September to February), 2学期 (March to May), and 3学期 (June to August). Each section has a header row for the month and a grid of days with corresponding activities. The bottom row of each section summarizes the number of days for various activities.
